Public invited to Grand Open House for Lyngblomsten at Lino Lakes on October 7

ST. PAUL, Minn. (September 22, 2023) — Lyngblomsten, a Minnesota nonprofit senior services organization, will host a Grand Open House to celebrate the opening of its new continuum-of-care senior living campus in Lino Lakes, Minn., on Saturday, October 7, from 2–5 PM. The Open House, which is open to the public, will offer family-friendly activities, entertainment, refreshments, and tours. This event is free and no reservations are needed.

Attendees of the Open House can tour the spacious, light-filled apartments that feature contemporary finishes and thoughtful touches and see the many resort-style amenities available to residents. Plus, guests can engage in fun activities, listen to live music, meet the staff, and sample delicious food created by the outstanding chef and culinary team. Weather permitting, many of the afternoon's activities will be held outside.

Lyngblomsten at Lino Lakes is located at 6070 Blanchard Boulevard in Lino Lakes, at the intersection of County Road J and Hodgson Road.

Opened in 2023, Lyngblomsten at Lino Lakes offers independent rental apartments and townhomes and assisted living and memory care suites. Residents can enjoy a variety of activities and amenities, including three dining venues, fitness center with warm water pool, chapel/multipurpose room, game room, and more. This campus is only the second one for Lyngblomsten since it opened its first campus in the Como Park neighborhood of St. Paul in 1912.
